Workshop on “Importance of Water Conservation and Future Generation”

REPORT

Date: 11.09.2023

Location: Kishinchand Chellaram Law College.

Number of Participants: 81

Environment and Nature Club (Green Club) of the College organized a Workshop on “Importance of Water Conservation and Future Generation” on 11th September, 2023 from 11.00 a.m. to 12.00 p.m., at Chief Justice H K Chainani Moot Court Hall. The event aimed to tackle critical issues surrounding water sustainability and explore strategies for responsible resource management. Dr. Sadhana Mahashabde, Law Member of MWRRA (Maharashtra Water Resource Regulatory Authority) in Mumbai, was the Resource person and Eminent Speaker for the workshop. The workshop was attended by 81 participants.

Dr. Mahashabade started the workshop by emphasizing the importance of water sustainability for environmental preservation, economic growth, and societal well-being. She then discussed the legal framework and regulations governing water resource management and MWRRA's role in enforcing these regulations. Innovative solutions, such as rainwater harvesting, water recycling, and technology-based approaches, were discussed to address water scarcity and improve water quality. Dr. Mahashabade highlighted the need for collaboration among government agencies, local communities, and industries. The workshop concluded with a call for advocacy and policy development at both state and national levels to address water sustainability challenges.

The workshop provided valuable insights on water sustainability in Maharashtra, emphasizing the importance of responsible water management and collaborative efforts for a sustainable water future. Attendees left the event inspired to take concrete actions in their respective areas to support this vital cause.
