

Ms. Megna Devkar, Faculty
B.A., LL.M.

Ms. Megna Devkar is a full time teaching faculty & Ph.D. scholar of K. C. Law College, affiliated with the University of Mumbai. She holds an LL.M. in Constitutional & Administrative Law and a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and History. Her diverse educational background includes various courses and certifications in law-related subjects.

She has engaged in event organization, published chapters and articles and actively participated in seminars and conferences.

Megna also possesses additional qualifications such as being the General Secretary of Law College and participating in various elocution, debates, and moot court competitions.

Awards and achievements highlight Megna's active involvement in college activities, including being awarded Best Student, Most Active Student, and winning accolades in competitions. She also holds various scholarships for her academic excellence.

She is an active social worker in Bandra and youth member of Chimbai Koliwada Association and Wadhwan Association (Dahanu).